

How far is a gimme putt?

There's no right or wrong, but most common is it's a gimme if it's inside the grip. Meaning if you lay the putter face in the hole, the ball needs to be anywhere along the metal shaft to be a gimme. If it lies outside the shaft to where the grip starts, then it's not a gimme.